

Kulanu Canada & Na'amat Canada Toronto Present:

A FILM AND SPEAKER SPECIAL:

DOING JEWISH

 A STORY FROM GHANA

Who would expect to find Jews in Ghana? Certainly not filmmaker Gabrielle Zilkha . But when she volunteered to work in Africa, and found herself alone as the Jewish New Year approached, she made a surprising connection with the Jewish Africans she met there . In remote Sefwi Wiawso, Zilkha encounters a group of practicing, dedicated and devout Jews .

Meet the Toronto filmmaker, Gabrielle Zilka, purchase beautiful Ghanaian challah covers, support an isolated Jewish community by viewing this amazing, award winning documentary .

Date: November 12, 2017

Where: Borochov Cultural Centre, 272 Codsell Ave. Toronto

Time: Doors open 7:15pm, film starts 7:30pm, Q & A with filmmaker to follow

Admission: $12.00 (at the door)

For information: contact Marilyn Herbert merbert@rogers.com

If you have used or unused tallitot to donate to the Jews of Ghana, please bring to the event; donations are not tax receiptable but will be very welcome. Kulanu Canada will send to Ghana

If you would like to support the community and purchase a handmade, unique challah cover, see the selection. Prices are $36 per cover or two for $60 CDN. Kulanu Canada is a registered Canadian charity. Donations are tax receiptable.