

From Tortillas to Torah The Jews of Guatemala

How did 24 Jews-by-choice find each other to start a congregation? What drew them to Judaism in the first place? How have their lives changed as Jews in Guatemala? Come hear their story from Jeannette Orantes, president of Adat Israel Guatemala, and her daughter Rebecca, who dreams of becoming a Rabbi. Co-sponsored with Kulanu Canada.

MON DEC 4, 7:30 PM at CITY SHUL, 300 BLOOR ST W. FREE! ALL WELCOME!
Beautiful Guatemalan kipot and challah covers will be available at $25 each —cash or cheque only— and donations for the community will be appreciated!

Like a native from among you, so the stranger who sojourns with you shall be for you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt” (Lev. 19:34)
